

his Prince or country by betraying his friends, he hopeth to be excused for not wishing to live with such a spot of infamy He therefore beggeth life and liberty on such conditions as he may conscientiously observe, if not, he resigns himself to God's disposal

The Master of the Hospital of the Savoy is to forbear for the time to receive any into the hospital because of the danger that the poor people repairing there daily may be infected with the plague, to the great danger of the inhabitants in general and especially to some of the Council that dwell in those parts and are often occasioned to be at Court and near the Queen. This hospital was founded in former times for poor suitors from the country that are unable to defray the charge of lodging during their abode in the City on their necessary business, but the greater part of those now received are young boys, rogues and vagabonds

John Penry, the Puritan, was arraigned this day At his trial many seditious and slanderous speeches were urged against him, collected from his papers and writings He had said that the Queen stands against the Gospel and will not move a finger to help it, nor speak a word to reform it The magistrates, ministers and people are conspirators against God, murder whole troops of souls, and are godless men The Council are rebels against God and levy their force against the Gospel Nor may the people serve God under the Queen but are bond slaves of the man of sin, nor would the Queen have embraced the Gospel if she could have received the crown without it, and only useth it to strengthen her sceptre If Queen Mary had reigned to this day, the Gospel would have flourished more, without the Gospel, outward peace is nothing

A REQUEST OF THE CITIZENS OF PARIS

From Paris it is reported that 500 of the inhabitants went to the lodging of Monsieur de Blyn, and signified to him that they would live and die in the maintenance of the Catholic religion, but if the King would render himself a Catholic they would make a peace with him that would not be in the power either